NOTICE
ELECTRONIC DATA INTERCHANGE (EDI) FOR
WORKERS' COMPENSATION CLAIMS

DATE: February 4, 2003

The Tennessee Workers' Compensation Division is accepting Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) for First Reports of Work Injury (FROI) and is currently testing the subsequent reports (SROI) Notice of First Pay, Notice of Denial, Change/Termination of Benefits and Final Payment. The standard used for implementation is the International Association of Industrial Accidents Boards and Commissions (IAIABC) Implementation Guide for Release 1.

The Division is currently piloting with Cambridge Integrated Services Group Inc. Other carriers are being added on a voluntary basis. Effective July 1, 2003, filing electronically will become mandatory.

The IAIABC standard First Report of Work Injury Form which Tennessee must use for EDI purposes contains a field that will identify the First Report as medical only or loss time. Therefore, Tennessee Form C21, Monthly Report of Non-compensable Injuries, will be phased out through the implementation of FROI. As a result, the IAIABC First Report of Work Injury Form will be filed with the Tennessee Workers' Compensation Division for both loss time and medical only claims.

A list of vendors that can assist in the processing and transmission of EDI Claims in Tennessee is attached.
